

State Library of Pennsylvania Pennsylvania Authors Lunchtime Lecture Series

What? Meet Wade Fowler, author of Rising Sun Descending
Where? State Library of Pennsylvania, Room 321 Forum Building
607 South Drive, Harrisburg, PA
When? June 15th at 12:00 noon

About the Book: As journeyman journalist Revere Polk investigates the 40-year-old murder of his grand great uncle, Jacob Wissler Addison, a cold case suddenly comes to a full boil. What did Uncle Jake's top secret, but ill-fated, mission to Tokyo in August of 1945 have to do with a modern-day plot to assassinate the president of the United States? And was the atom bombing of Japan really necessary?

The answers await in Rising Sun Descending.

About the Author: Wade Fowler is a career journalist with more than thirty years of experience with daily and weekly newspapers. He was a copy editor, feature writer and beat reporter for The Patriot-News of Harrisburg, PA, for 10 years before leaving to become editor of the Perry County Times in New Bloomfield.

He has won Keystone Press Awards for investigative reporting, feature series writing, and headline writing and is a former president of the Pennsylvania Society of Newspaper Editors. Fowler is a native of North Carolina, a veteran of the U.S. Navy, and a graduate of Guilford College, Greensboro, N.C. He and his wife, Sharon, live in New Cumberland, PA. They have three children and two grandchildren.

Rising Sun Descending is available for purchase at local bookstores and also through Sunbury Press. The State Library has books to borrow, but not to sell.

Mr. Fowler will be happy to sign a copy of your book at this event.
For more information, contact librarian Ellen Shenk at 783-5969 or ellshenk@pa.gov.